

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2639 - SB 2865

February 21, 2002

SUMMARY OF BILL: Allows a non-resident to enroll in a state college or university in Tennessee, without out-of-state tuition, if their place of residence is in a county of another state lying immediately adjacent to a county in this state in which the teacher college or normal school is situated, or if their residence is within 30 miles of the teacher college or normal school.

Present law allows the waiver for residents of Kentucky counties within 30 miles of Austin Peay State University only if there is not an education college or normal school within equal distance of their home in Kentucky.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Assumes this language merely ensures that the current benefit could be offered if a Kentucky institution opened a branch site in the area covered by the tuition waiver.
